LETTER FROM DOYLESTOWN

Correspondent Gives a Quiet Review [of] County Seat Affairs.

Doylestown November [illegible] Washington Camp No 611, [P O] S of A has presented a han[dsome] United States flag a large po[le and] all necessary equipment to the [school] board and soon for the first [time in] many years Old Glory will [float] ing at our public schools The board will fix the size of the [flag] [and the] height of the pole and its l[ocation]

On Monday night the sc[hool board] met but transacted but li[ttle business] owing to the electric ligh[ts being] out of commission short[ly after the] meeting was called by a [illegible] falling across the arc li[illegible] descent lights in the o[illegible] giving a beautiful but [illegible] tric exhibition The [illegible] early in the afternoo[n] [illegible] was one of the most [illegible] years and put a stop to m[illegible] com binations that we[illegible] and nearly ready for co[illegible]

The institute thi[s year] [illegible] success than ever [illegible] a greater [illegible] ions of the teac[hers] [illegible] he opin [illegible] may be taken [illegible] attended [illegible] turers who were [illegible] he day lec [illegible] Dr Boyer and [illegible] attendance [illegible] successful in [illegible] were very [illegible] and interest [illegible] the attention [illegible] marm put in [illegible] ur young school- [illegible] busy B's an[illegible] were two very [illegible] them [illegible] s of honey behind [illegible] fully up t[illegible] lecturers were [illegible] standard [illegible] sor Hoffman's high [illegible] county s[illegible] rectors Day had the [illegible] director [illegible] to overflowing with [illegible] row, [illegible] of whom to their sor [illegible] and ha[illegible] have their school boards [illegible] and [illegible] more interest in schools [illegible] work

[The gu]nning season opened this [week] as usual the trolley cars [illegible] going city ward loaded [with] cotton tails In this section [there] [a]re plenty this year and the [illegible] of the gun is heard almost con[tinu]ously Pheasant and quail are [scar]ce but the squirrel hunters have [bee]n having much better luck than [us]ual If all game was allowed to accumulate for from three to five years there would be plenty for all gunners

After all of last week's excitement the county seat is about normal again Owing to the various house holders profiting from the experience of the last two or three years Hallowe'en was very quiet this year The streets were filled with masqueraders who had lots of fun but none of them was at all offensive A large masquerade party was given in the Armory when the prizes offered for costumes brought out a large number of handsome as well as comic ones For the first time the county seat landed the two principal prizes, Mrs Mary Provost receiving the lady's prize and Albert Halderman the gentleman's prize The music furnished by the Doylestown Orchestra was above the standard and about one hundred and twenty-five couples enjoyed the dance There were numerous private parties also that evening and the county seat had a royal good time

But one accident marred the celebration in town and that happened about 10 o'clock when Stanley, the 12-year old son of Mr and Mrs M S Vaux

Stanley with several other masqueraders dashed across Main street, near Court as the team came along Seeing that Stanley was bound to be struck if he drove straight ahead Mr Vaux pulled on one line to throw the horse to one side but at the same time Cogan drew back to that side One of the wheels struck him and knocked him down His head hit the trolley rail and the front wheel passed diagonally across one hip

The boy was picked up unconscious and physicians who were hastily summoned gave him medical attention It was found that his principal injuries were contusions of the head and left arm and a severe shaking up He was still in a dazed condition when taken to his home Swathed in bandages he was seen at his home on Wednesday morning but was unable to give any account of how the accident happened

Now that election is over Boss Grundy will probably appoint two more good and efficient police officers at the county seat It is hoped that he will also consent to the appointment of a new primary school teacher here It is true that we have two now who only have about one hundred scholars apiece and who in a few months will have to seat the new ones on the floor Then too he might come up and locate the electric lights and fire plugs in the recently annexed district and as he has taken so much interest in county seat appointments and affairs generally he might pay for a few of them out of the profits of his organ—The Intelligencer But give us the policemen any how That's a good boy

There is a somewhat romantic story behind the stage life of Mr and Mrs Louis Winsch who come to the William Penn Theatre Philadelphia next week, as Winsch and Regal, in a sketch called No Trespassing,' which will be remembered as having been seen at Keith's not so very long ago Five years ago Mr Winsch was a popular baritone singer in Atlantic City and Miss Regal who is the daughter of a wealthy southern merchant fell in love with him, with the result that she was hurried away from Atlantic City and the baritone She returned the following summer and decided that she would go upon the stage herself, despite the objection made by her parents Her parents finally consented to her marriage with Winsch and one of the wedding gifts was a $[illegible] 000 home at Atlantic City, and the turning over to the daughter of almost half a million dollars her share of an estate that had been held in trust for her Both Mr and Mrs Winsch liked the stage, and their success in vaudeville determined them to continue the work

It is better to have fought and lost than to never have fought at all

Congratulations to our fellow townsman, William K Fine, who has been honored by election as treasurer of Bucks county

We now call upon the sheriff elect of Bucks county to retract the good natured libel promulgated in his newspaper just previous to election and as reproduced in the organization pink sheet.'

President Taft s allusion to the defeat of his party next year was not at all pleasing to Republican party leaders Nothing discourages a party so much as the prospect of defeat, and for a year past the Republican party has been facing more prognostications of losing the next administration than any party in power ever received. The effect is that the Republicans have little encouragement to work

The commissioner of corporations has been delving into the history of the tobacco trust In 1885, one part of the trust, the Duke Sons Company was worth $250,000 By the mere process of joining the trust it swelled to $7,500,000 and, later, was treated to a further dose of $22,000,000 in securities and ' earns ' 10 per cent on that And in 25 years the Duke property, a $250 000 proposition, has earned' $39,000,000, or 15 600 per cent ' How long will the American public stand for the game of watered stock, industrial monopoly rising cost of living and commercialized politics?

There is one thing upon which all the members of the majority of the House of Representatives are solidly united and that is a determination to see that there is a reason back of every dollar that is to be appropriated at the coming session of Congress Leaders of the party are of the opinion that the Republican policy of accepting the estimates of the various department heads without question has been a tremendously expensive one to Uncle Sam and hereafter these leaders say, the public purse is not going to be opened until the requisition is endorsed by facts sufficient to justify it In line with this policy Chairman Fitzgerald, of the all important appropriations committee, has been the busiest man in the United States, during the past summer personally investigating the various items which later on will call for an expenditure of Uncle Sam s good money

WHO GETS BEEF RAKE-OFF?

Texas Cattle Raisers Association and 00 000 Texas farmers who together own 9 000 000 head of cattle and who annually market more than 1 000 000 head, I d C Lasater president of that association, has started a fight to more equitably distribute the 300 per cent profit which it is alleged is now realized from the time the beef steer leaves the hands of the producer until he reaches the consumer

It is charged by Lasater that the greater portion of this enormous profit goes into the coffers of the packers While the packers are growing richer and richer and the consumer is paying more and more for his beef figures show that the producers of cattle are receiving less for their output, beef steers often selling for less than the cost of production The movement launched by Lasater and which will be made nation wide seeks to know why the price of beef goes up when the price of cattle goes down

A determined fight is to be the result of the conference held at Fort Worth, called by President Lasater which was attended by representatives from the Texas Farmers Congress the Texas Farmers' Union and delegates from many commercial bodies

At the conference it was shown that it costs $21 06 to raise a yearling steer on the range, and that by the time the steer is of age and in condition for butchering the average cost is $73 00 Lasater recently marketed 2?? head and received an average of $19 21, less than the actual cost a head for production This condition means ruin to cattle producers The steer which cost the packer $34 ?? is sold to the consumer at close to $100 gross Who gets this 300 per cent additional is what the producers as well as consumers are anxious to find out

To fight effectively the great packers, with their millions of dollars of capital the Texas cattle producers and the consumers of beef have decided on the organization of the Texas Cattle Raisers Sales Directing Agency The principal office will be in Fort Worth, with branch offices in St Louis and Chicago The purpose is to assist the producer in getting better prices and to instruct him regarding the greater markets

The Texas Cattle Raisers' Association will subscribe $1 500 000 of the stock This amount will be obtained by levying $1 a head on the cattle turned over to the association The remainder of the $3,000 000 will be subscribed by other interests

In addition to forming the sales agency, Texas producers will urge the attorney general of the United States to become more active in pushing the cases now pending, against the beef trust Discussing the fight, Lasater said ' The cattlemen are at the mercy of the packers in marketing because the packers control the stock yards If the selling agency does not produce the results we anticipated we will go into the packing business ourselves. Plenty of capital can be obtained for that purpose The price at which meat is now sold is the same at all the packing houses, showing conclusively that [illegible] exists "

La Follette on the basis of his ' bumps ' has now been picked as the only hope of the Republicans against Woodrow Wilson in 1912 except perhaps Theodore Roosevelt That is to say according to the president of Aurora college which seems to be situated somewhere near Chicago La Follette s ' cranial manifestations reveal' his immense ability, self esteem, tremendous endurance and patriotism ' The president of Aurora adds

Examination of his bumps shows plainly he is the only man, with the possible exception of Roosevelt who can cope with Woodrow Wilson The jaw, as shown from the opening of the ear with wide and prominent chin gives jowl enough for a general He is a great leader when his knowledge of human nature, tact and intelligence are considered The eye shows great power of concentration, fixedness of purpose the mouth firmness with gravity The width of the head above the ears indicates force and executive ability The great height of the head from the opening of the ear indicates high moral development With all these qualities the fulness indicates a statesman a man who has not only his own ambition to gratify but a desire to serve his country conspicuously A full development in the crown of the head indicates self command and self esteem Wilson being just an oldtime Republican would get a large share of the progressive vote La Follette would get [illegible] of these

It may be that after the Republican convention next summer La Follette will have new bumps which this college president ought to study further

PAY NO ATTENTION TO RUMORS

If one contestant forget a few thousand votes dead in the paper it must not be taken for granted that the race is won Perhaps the candidates who are reporting in quiet at the bottom of the list will be the very ones to [illegible] walk off the prizes Such a thing has been done and many a race has been lost by over confidence Don't let rumors influence you one way or the other It is often the case that a candidate or a friend will hear that such [illegible] has secured a large number of subscriptions

These rumors are usually false as no one can know how many votes we have other than those published in the paper, and the report is therefore started in the hope that other candidates will become discouraged and stop their efforts Such reports should only urge one to greater efforts

Get busy and stay busy is the only sure road to success not only in voting contests but in any line of effort

Don t wait until tomorrow
Don t trust to luck
Don t become discouraged

Strive to be among the winners get your friends to help you not only by subscribing themselves but by getting others to subscribe and when the final count is made you will not be disappointed

REPUBLICANS WIN EASY IN BRISTOL

Win Everything in Four Wards and Elect Councilman in Democratic Fourth.

The Republicans won an easy victory in Bristol on Tuesday electing everybody on the ticket in the First, Second, Third and Fifth wards. In the Democratic Fourth ward a special effort was made to elect Charles A. Singer, Republican candidate for council and it was successful. It is reported that all sorts of promises were made to induce votes for the Republican candidates.

There was but little excitement at any of the polling places although there was considerable challenging in the Third ward.

Cutting of tickets was very frequent; in the First ward there was 75 split tickets; in the Second ward, 51; in the Third ward, 83; in the Fourth ward, 70; in the Fifth ward, 45.

One noticeable feature was the increase in the Socialist vote, 25 being cast in the borough.

William K. Fine's majority of 530 was a striking tribute to that young man's popularity. He received substantial majorities in all of the five wards, running ahead of his colleagues in each district in the town, even receiving a majority of 7 in the Fourth, a strong Democratic ward.

In Bristol township east Mr. Fine received 169 votes and in the west district he got 90 making a majority over Shearer in the two districts of 134.

The vote on the question as to whether the debt of the borough should be increased by the issue of $100,000 of bonds for the purpose of either constructing a municipal water works or purchasing the plant of the Bristol Water Company, was carried in the affirmative by 445 majority, the vote being 535 for and 90 against the proposition.

The detailed vote in the borough will be found below.

Buehler, Misses Verna Bell and Mabel Reed, Misses Anna and Viola Simpson.

Burgess and Mrs. Ancker Injured.

On election night Burgess Henry E. Ancker, of Bristol, had a mishap which has compelled him to hobble about with the aid of a crutch. Early in the evening he stepped on a loose board and sprained the ligaments in his ankle.

On Wednesday Mrs. Ancker reached down to the bottom of an apple barrel at her mother's home on Radcliffe street and a nail that projected on the inside of the barrel tore the flesh of her arm. She was compelled to visit a physician to have the wound attended to.

All members of society are requested to be present.

Kept Wedding a Secret.

Bristol is a great place for "quiet" weddings. The latest of these affairs which have been kept from the public is the announcement which has just been made of the marriage of Earl Stanley White, manager of the Colonial Theatre, of Bristol, and Miss Blanche Woodhull, the pianist at the thearte, which took place in Philadelphia last summer.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Milton Tivedale, a clergyman of the Reformed Episcopal church, on Sunday evening, July 23d, at the home of the bride, 1901 north 19th street, Philadelphia, where they now reside.

Mr. White was granted an absolute divorce from his first wife, Mary R. White, on the first of last March.

T. N. C. Social.

A very delightful social evening was spent by the members of the T. N. C., an organization of young ladies of Bristol Presbyterian church on Monday evening in the banqueting hall of the church. It was preceded by a business meeting, election of officers, reception of new members, etc. Although the weather was most inclement there was quite a good attendance of the young girls, and all seemed to enjoy the games, social chat and ice cream and cake. The pastor of the church was a guest of honor, and did not seem to feel at all timid, though the only man in the room. The T. N. C. hopes to welcome a number of new members at their next regular meeting next Monday evening, and the club is planning to do considerable work for the church during the winter.

W. C. T. U. Annual Meeting.

The annual business meeting of the Bristol W. C. T. U. was held at the home of the president, Miss Hughes, on Monday evening. The treasurer's report showed a good balance in the treasury, and all bills paid. Although a very stormy night, sixteen members attended. At the close of the business session a social time was spent, during which three new members were welcomed. Coffee and cake were served and all joined in pleasant conversation.

During the evening a mention was made of the serious condition of one of the union's vice presidents, Mrs. W. T. Johnston, who is in a Philadelphia hospital, and the secretary was asked to send her a message of loving sympathy from the union, and some flowers.

The next business meeting of the union will be held on Monday, December 4, 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Yeamans, Otter street.

Nebraskan Visiting Here.

Samuel Lippincott, of Memphis, Nebraska, is visiting his relative, Mrs. Edith McLaughlin, 150 Otter street, Bristol.

Mr. Lippincott, who is 72 years old, speaks enthusiastically of the western country and especially Nebraska. He has been justice of the peace in his home town for 23 years and was a candidate for re-election this week. Although he has not heard the result he is confident that he was successful.

Mr. Lippincott has been east for nearly two months. He came to attend the 50th anniversary and reunion of the 104th Pennsylvania Regiment of which he is a member. He was honored by being elected president of the Survivors Association.

Mr. Lippincott is a retired farmer but is still a chicken fancier making specialties of thoroughbred Rhode Island Reds, Mottled Anconas and Bourbon Red turkeys.

A number of old Bristol friends have called upon Mr. Lippincott since he has been here.

Barrett Thanks the Public.

I take this means of thanking my fellow townsmen for the honor conferred on me on Tuesday by my practially unanimous election to the school board.

I appreciate very much the distinction, and hope to prove that your confidence has not been misplaced.

Yours truly,
EUGENE A. BARRETT.

REPUBLICANS SWEEP COUNTY

Editor Meredith High Man With Twenty-five Hundred Majority

FUSION REJECTED

William K. Fine, Bristol's Candidate Made Splendid Run in the Borough and is Elected by 1,200 Majority.

The Republicans won a sweeping victory in Bucks county on Tuesday and the entire ticket, representing fourteen candidates for county offices, was elected by majorities ranging from 2500 to 1200.

Charles M. Meredith, editor of the Perkasie News, candidate for sheriff proved to be the most popular nominee and was accorded the highest vote of any of the candidates and received a majority of over 2500.

William K. Fine, of Bristol, candidate for county treasurer, made a splendid showing, when considered that he was pitted against an exceptionally strong opponent, who made a strenuous campaign for election. Fine's majority in the county is about 1200.

The victory is one of the most decisive in recent years and demonstrates that the Republican organization, when it gets aroused is practically impregnable.

The Keystone vote, outside of Bristol, failed to materialize to any appreciable extent and the fusion campaign proved to be a failure.

With two or three districts yet to be reported the vote in the county was as follows:

The candidates for Auditors and Poor Directors will have majorities ranging from 2000 to 2200.

Election Notes.

On election day a telegram was delivered to W. K. Fine, Republican candidate for County Treasurer, sent by William A. Lane, from Montreal, Canada, expressing best wishes for Mr. Fine's election.

James Wright, the veteran member of the Bristol borough council, was the "high" man on the councilmanic ticket in the First ward. It was a distinct compliment.

Patrick J. Dougherty, one of the most intelligent members of the Bristol borough council, representative from the Fourth ward, and practically the only member of that body who had the hardihood to voice his sentiments in council, paid the penalty of his independence on election day and was crushed by the machine. "Pat" can tell you an interesting story.

Isaiah Barndt, Democratic candidate, was elected minority member of the board of county commissioners, having about 400 more votes than Gerhart.

Owing to the fact that the name of but one candidate for borough auditors in Bristol appeared on the Republican ballots, Michael J. Weebler has been elected to that office.

The total vote cast in Bristol borough was 1508, divided as follows: First ward, 382; Second ward, 279; Third ward, 321; Fourth ward, 307; Fifth ward, 219. In round numbers, the Republicans polled 1000 votes and the Keystone-Democratic combination, 500. In four wards the Keystone exceeded the Democratic vote. The Keystone vote was about 250. over half the Democratic vote in the borough was polled in the Fourth ward.

LOWER BENSALEM

A special service and sermon for men next Sunday, November 12th, Chapel of Redeemer, Andalusia, at 11 a. m. A large attendance of men is earnestly requested. Strangers cordially invited. At 3 p. m., missionary service and infant baptism.

The boys of All Saints Sunday school, Torresdale, are organizing a football team. It is hoped that the Andalusia Sunday school boys will follow their example.

The regular missionary meeting of the Eddington Presbyterian church will be at Mrs. Kay's, near Croydon station, this Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Members and friends are invited.

At the close of Sunday morning's service, Rev. T. Clayton Welles tendered his resignation as pastor of the Eddington Presbyterian church, to take effect November 20th. Mr. Welles has been pastor of the Eddington church for six and a half years, and resigns to accept the position of superintendent of church extension in the Presbytery of Philadelphia North. There will be a meeting of the members of the church next Sunday, immediately after the morning service, to consider this action.

In making complaints about neglect of children or cruelty to animals always give name and address and state the offense. Howard E. Franck, honorary agent ... S. P. C. A., has received some complaints, which were so indefinite that they were simply worthless, complainant withholding his name, so no further information could be obtained. Definite complaints will be promptly investigated and informatant' name will not be divulged. A horse left unblanketed standing in the cold is an act of cruelty. "How much unnecessary suffering can I prevent in this suffering world today?"

"Clearing The Roadsides."

Editor Gazette:—The current number of "The World's Work" contains an editorial article under the above title which, while particularly applicable to New York State, has a bearing upon local conditions.

It says in part, "The New York Legislature did a happy thing when it passed a law making it a misdemeanor to put up advertising signs in public highways, and expressly exempting from punishment persons who removed signs so placed. On the very dawn of the day when the law went into effect the roads in the neighborhood of New York City were scenes of the sport of many bands of lawful destroyers. Telephone and telegraph poles, trees and lamp-posts were cleared of bills, tin signs and boards extolling the merits of various brands of breakfast food, soap, toilet powder and cigars. It is an open question whether any law is really needed to legitimatize the destruction of signs affixed to trees and posts, or otherwise set up on public roads. The law might however," (not only in New York, but in Pennsylvania likewise), "properly turn its attention to the display of signs from private grounds. What right has the owner of a barn to disturb passers-by by thrusting into their faces hideous arrangements of paint screaming of pills and pepsin? If one may not start a tannery or a rubber factory against the objections of neighbors whose nostrils it offends, has he any better right to affront their eyes? Here is a realm of law which ought to be exploited. The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of New York has also recognized that what pleases the eye is valuable and deserves protection. A street contractor had destroyed shade trees on the parking strip between the sidewalk and the street in front of a residence. The owner sued him and recovered $500 for each tree recompense for the loss of actual physical property, and $1,000 additional, for the loss of beauty to the whole place.

"When the legislature encourages beauty-loving citizens to clear the roads of defacing signs, and the courts hold officially that the beauty of a tree increases the value of the ground around it, it means that there is a very wide spread appreciation of these things among the public, for the legislatures and the courts always follow closely in the wake of the people's thought."

There is a fair field for missionary work upon these lines right here in Bristol and vicinity. Who will step in and fill it?

JNO. C. MAULE.

Aunt Mary (horrified)—"Good gracious! Harold, what would your mother say if she saw you smoking cigarettes?"

Harold (calmly)—"She'd have a fit. They're her cigarettes."—Exchange.

"I fear that I have not gathered sufficient evidence to convince the court of my client's insanity."

"Perhaps the court will regard his employment of you as evidence."—Houston Post.

P. R. R. Issues Farmers' Booklet.

A booklet describing the exhibit to be presented by the Pennsylvania Railroad at the American Land & Irrigation Exposition, at Madison Square Garden, New York City, has been issued by the company. The exposition opened last Saturday and will continue until November 12th.

The work which the Pennsylvania has done to increase the crops along its lines will be illustrated graphically. There will also be seen models showing the development in transportation methods from the Conestoga wagon to the most modern cars. Topographical models have been prepared which represent the Allegheny mountains, Old Portage Railroad, the celebrated Horse Shoe Curve, the Cumberland Valley, and the Pennsylvania Railroad's entrance into New York City and extension to Long Island. Many other models and tables of interesting statistics relative to farming will be on exhibition.

KEEP HALF THE MONEY

YOU HAVE BEEN IN THE HABIT OF PAYING FOR LIVING EXPENSES

SOLVE THE VITAL HIGH COST OF LIVING PROBLEM

HERE IS THE WAY

THE problem of supplying a family with plenty of food of the best quality is a perplexing one. To the man and woman of moderate means it may seem a problem that cannot be solved. If you are a housewife, you understand how discouraging it is to have the price of beef or butter or lard go up. You know that if the rise in prices is very much, your plans are upset. It is unpleasant to cut down on the quantity or quality of the food your family eats. Yet, you must when this happens. You must if you want to make ends meet and are still a slave to the old time plan of paying four or five profits to four or five middlemen for food.

Now, look here! This cost of living problem is vital to you, isn't it? It really is a problem that you must solve.

Then you've got to save money, haven't you? Do you know a way to economize that will not inconvenience you one bit?

But, do you know the real way to economize? Do you know a way to economize that will not inconvenience you one bit?

There is a way. Over two million people have discovered it. Over two million people every year, buy food, clothes, furniture, stoves—almost everything they need to use in any way—from Montgomery Ward & Co on the one profit plan.

Now, how have they solved the serious "high cost of living" problem? How will you be able to solve it by buying life's necessities from us?

Simply by doing this—by paying only one half to four fifths of the money you have been spending elsewhere for life's necessities, and getting in return from us better merchandise than you heretofore have been using.

We will explain the matter to you. The reason you can save 20 to 50 per cent on the dollar from us is, of course, been so our prices are lower—a because we buy and sell 60 carloads of stoves for instance in a year where a small dealer only buys and sells half of one carload in a year. Now you yourself know that if you buy a dozen pairs of stockings you will get a lower price on each pair of stockings than if you had only bought one pair. But, we buy and sell hundreds of thousands of pairs of stockings, for instance.

That is the way we do business. But, we buy and get the rock bottom price.

Then we give you the advantage of our ability to buy in such great lots. We ask you to pay only a very slight advance over the prices we pay.

Is that clear? Do you see that you really can save money by buying from Montgomery Ward & Co? Well just try it once. Just send us a small order. See for yourself that every article is of first quality. Begin to save. You must.

THIS UNLIMITED GUARANTEE PROTECTS YOU— "SATISFACTION—OR MONEY REFUNDED"

Remember that we guarantee—positively guarantee—that every purchase you make will please you. In filling your order, we will make every effort to satisfy your requirements. But, if by any chance you should not be fully pleased, send your purchase back. We will refund your money without question, or we will make any exchange or alteration of the merchandise that you wish. Furthermore we will pay all the transportation charges you have paid.

The way to start buying from us is to get from us as many of our money-saving books as you can use.

The grocery book is number 11. We issue a new grocery book every two months. When you send us your name, we will put it on our list to receive this book regularly.

There are 37 other books—clothes stoves furniture sewing machines organs pianos wall paper—everything you need and want to make the winter months pleasant.

Mark the books you want on the coupon. Tear or cut out the coupon fill it out with your name and address. We will send you the books that will help you as soon as we hear from you. The sooner you send the coupon though the sooner you will get the books that will start you on the right way to solve the serious "high cost of living" problem.
